

DESCENDANTS OF GEORGE BOONE
=====

Don Norman

1 . GEORGE BOONE

George Boone was born in Brandish, Exeter, England about 1670 and died at Gwynedd, PA in 1744. He married Mary Maugriddles. The family immigrated to PA in 1717 and settled at Gwynedd. They were active Quakers and founded the Quaker Meeting at Gwynedd, George was a weaver by trade and farmer by necessity. He was an active and respected member of the community. He died at Gwynedd in 1744. Mary died shortly thereafter and both are buried in the Quaker burying ground.

4.SOUIRE BOONE      1.GEORGE BOONE

Squire Boone, a son of George and Mary (Maugridges) Boone, was born in Bradnich, Exeter, England in 1696 and died in North Carolina in 1756. He married Sarah Morgan at the Friends Radnor Meeting July 23, 1720. Sarah, a daughter of Edward and Elizabeth (Jarman) Morgan, was born in 1700 and died January 1, 1777. Another source reports that Sarah Morgan's mother was Sarah Stout, a daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Leigh) Stout.

Squire Sr. and Sarah relocated their family to Boone's Corner on the Yadkin River in NC, following their sons, Daniel and Samuel. Squire operated a way station until his death in 1756. Sarah continued to live at the home until her death in 1777. They are buried in the Joppa Graveyard there.
